2. Purpose of the PAIA Manual

To promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of PAIA, in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

Wherever reference is made to "Private Body" in this manual, it will refer Germiston Association For The Aged.

This PAIA Manual is useful for the public to –

- 2.1. check the categories of records held by a body which are available without a person having to submit a formal PAIA request;
- 2.2. have a sufficient understanding of how to make a request for access to a record of the body, by providing a description of the subjects on which the body holds records and the categories of records held on each subject;
- 2.3. know the description of the records of the body which are available in accordance with any other legislation;
- 2.4. access all the relevant contact details of the Information Officer and Deputy Information Officer who will assist the public with the records they intend to access;
- 2.5. know the description of the guide on how to use PAIA, as updated by the Information Regulator and how to obtain access to it;
- 2.6. know if the body will process personal information, the purpose of processing of personal information and the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 2.7. know the description of the categories of data subjects and of the information or categories of information relating thereto;
- 2.8. know the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied;
- 2.9. know if the body has planned to transfer or process personal information outside the Republic of South Africa and the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal information may be supplied; and
- 2.10. know whether the body has appropriate security measures to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of the personal information which is to be processed.

  - 4.3.5 the assistance available from the Information Regulator in terms of PAIA and POPIA;

<sup>1</sup> Section 17(1) of PAIA- For the purposes of PAIA, each public body must, subject to legislation governing the employment of personnel of the public body concerned, designate such number of persons as deputy information officers as are necessary to render the public body as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records.

<sup>2</sup> Section 56(a) of POPIA- Each public and private body must make provision, in the manner prescribed in section 17 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, with the necessary changes, for the designation of such a number of persons, if any, as deputy information officers as is necessary to perform the duties and responsibilities as set out in section 55(1) of POPIA.

<sup>3</sup> Section 11(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to a record of a public body if that requester complies with all the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

<sup>4</sup> Section 50(1) of PAIA- A requester must be given access to any record of a private body if-

- a) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- b) that person complies with the procedural requirements in PAIA relating to a request for access to that record; and
- c) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of this Part.

- 4.3.6 all remedies in law available regarding an act or failure to act in respect of a right or duty conferred or imposed by PAIA and POPIA, including the manner of lodging-
  - 4.3.6.1 an internal appeal;
  - 4.3.6.2 a complaint to the Information Regulator; and
  - 4.3.6.3 an application with a court against a decision by the information officer of a public body, a decision on internal appeal or a decision by the Information Regulator or a decision of the head of a private body;
- 4.3.7 the provisions of sections 14<sup>5</sup> and 51<sup>6</sup> requiring a public body and private body, respectively, to compile a manual, and how to obtain access to a manual;
- 4.3.8 the provisions of sections 15<sup>7</sup> and 52<sup>8</sup> providing for the voluntary disclosure of categories of records by a public body and private body, respectively;
- 4.3.9 the notices issued in terms of sections 22<sup>9</sup> and 54<sup>10</sup> regarding fees to be paid in relation to requests for access; and
- 4.3.10 the regulations made in terms of section 92<sup>11</sup>.
- 4.4. Members of the public can inspect or make copies of the Guide from the offices of the public and private bodies, including the office of the Information Regulator, during normal working hours.
- 4.5. The Guide can also be obtained -
  - 4.5.1 upon request to the Information Officer;
  - 4.5.2 from the website of the Information Regulator (<https://inforegulator.org.za/>).

Personal Information of our clients, service providers, suppliers, and/or employees	- Our cloud storage and/or productivity solution providers like Microsoft 365 and/or Google Business - Other service providers or third-party suppliers, should the transaction/service require information sharing.

8.4. Planned transborder flow of personal information

Generally, we do not transfer your personal information to another country. However, in certain cases this may be necessary, for example, when our suppliers are based outside South Africa or when the service we provide involves a foreign party. Such transfers will only take place if:

- They are essential to the nature of the transaction, and
- They comply with the requirements of POPIA and/or other applicable South African laws.

When we do transfer your information across South African borders, we will take steps to ensure that the country or organisation receiving it has strong safeguards in place. This includes:

- Ensuring the destination country's laws offer similar protection to POPIA,
- Confirming that binding corporate rules are in place, or
- Relying on legal agreements that guarantee your information is handled securely and respectfully.

Use of cloud-based software: We use trusted software tools such as Microsoft 365 and Google Business to support our business operations and store personal information. These tools may store data on servers located outside South Africa. We believe these providers offer adequate protection for the personal information we entrust to them.

8.5. General description of information security measures to be implemented by the responsible party to ensure the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the information

Germiston Association For The Aged has implemented a range of reasonable and technical and organisational security measures to protect personal information against unauthorised access, unlawful processing, loss, destruction, or damage. These measures are reviewed and updated on a regular basis, with the key security measures including, among other things:

Technical Measures:

- Network and System Security: Utilisation of firewalls, malware and anti-virus protection, software patching, and data loss prevention technologies.
- Data Protection: Encryption of sensitive data and regular data backups with testing to ensure recoverability.
- Access Control: Use of unique user IDs and strong passwords, with access to information restricted on a "need-to-know" basis.
- Monitoring and Testing: Regular system monitoring, vulnerability scanning, and penetration testing to identify and mitigate threats.

Organisational Measures:

- Policies and Procedures: Implementation of documented information security policies, business continuity plans, and risk assessments.
- Employee Awareness: Regular training for employees on security and privacy practices.
- Third-Party Management: Ensuring third-party operators and service providers apply adequate security safeguards through contractual agreements.

Physical Security:

- Access Control: Restricting physical access to offices and sensitive areas.
- Secure Disposal: Implementing procedures for the appropriate disposal of assets containing personal information

9. Request procedure to obtain access to records held by the Private Body
